

Knowledge Organiser – Year Six – Autumn Term 1

Art and Design:

- Colours can be mixed to create different shades, tints, and tones.
- Artists use colour to communicate mood and feelings.

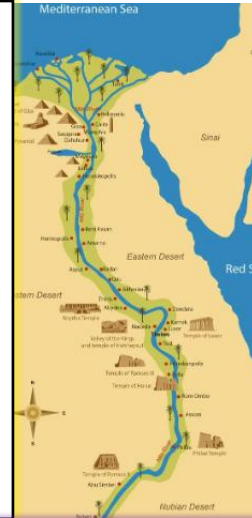

French: Hobbies and Sports

- le football (football)
- le tennis (tennis)
- la natation (swimming)
- le cyclisme (cycling)
- la danse (dance)
- la musique (music)
- la lecture (reading)
- le dessin (drawing)

Remember: J'aime means I like and Je n'aime pas means I do not like.

History: Ancient Egypt

- Ancient Egyptians believed in life after death.
- Pharaohs and wealthy people were mummified to preserve their bodies for the afterlife.
- Mummification was a careful process that involved removing organs, drying the body, and wrapping it in linen.
- The River Nile was central to life in Ancient Egypt.

Computing:

- Devices on the internet have addresses.
- Information is broken into data packets.
- Data packets travel across networks to reach the

PSHE:

- Assertive communication helps us build healthy friendships because it allows us to be honest, respectful, and confident without being unkind.

PE: Circuits /Netball

- Assertive communication helps us build healthy friendships because it allows us to be honest, respectful, and confident without being unkind.

Science: Evolution and Inheritance

- Living things have changed over time through a process called evolution.
- Evolution happens over many generations.
- Fossils provide evidence that living things have changed over time.
- Animals and plants have adaptations that help them survive in their environment.
- Adaptations increase an organism's chance of survival and reproduction.

Charles Darwin identified how finches' beaks adapted to help them in different environments.

RE: Creation: Christian vs Science

- Christians believe the Creation story is told in the book of Genesis in the Bible.
- Scientists use evidence to explain how the universe and life developed.

Music:

- Amazing Grace was written by John Newton and is one of the most famous songs in the English-speaking world.